- Have fun

ABOUT FULTZ HOUSE MUSEUM

The Fultz House Museum is home to many artifacts and photos that depict community life in Sackville, Lucasville, Beaver Bank, Kinsac and surrounding area from the 1860's to more contemporary times.

Sackville's unique Museum is located at the corner of two historically significant great roads of Nova Scotia - the Cobequid and Old Sackville.

On site are the Fultz House, a carriage house, the Grace Cooperage c. 1900, and a replica 1800's blacksmith shop all surrounded by spacious lawns and gardens.

Fultz House Museum

A VOLUNTEER DESTINATION

Come explore the many volunteer opportunities to be found at the Fultz House Museum!

Dear Volunteer,

On behalf of the Fultz Corner Restoration Society, I would like to take a moment and share some information with you regarding our organization's objectives and guidelines.

We are an organization devoted to telling the stories of Sackville, Beaver Bank, Kinsac, and Lucasville. We provide the community with a place to come and learn, to literally take footsteps in our past to explore the community's infancy and its evolving life. As well, we profile its interesting citizens who helped grow and advance the social fabric, economic vibrancy and cultural richness that has led to the communities we know today.

Once you take the next few minutes and read the information provided in this leaflet, I think you will agree that the Fultz House Museum is a great place to get involved with, whether that is on a weekly, bi-weekly or monthly basis.

Remember, that we value, recognize and appreciate the range of skills and abilities of prospective volunteers. Volunteer opportunities are available in a number of areas within the Museum, including the following: collections, preservation and restoration care, property work, and aiding with special events. New volunteers are part of the lifeblood of our organization.

At the Museum we are all part of a team. Know that you will be surrounded by a professional group of volunteers dedicated to coming together to maintain and build on a track record of success in providing our communities with an authentic, historical experience.

Sincerely,

Elmer W. Grove

President, Fultz Corner Restoration Society

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The objectives of the Fultz House Museum includes:

1. To collect, preserve and display artifacts, photographs or archival records of historical significance, either actual or representations, which best illustrate the cultural, social and economic development of the community.
2. To maintain a pleasant, clean and safe environment, which evokes the history of our Community, providing the public with a venue where they can be educated on the many facets of its evolution through the years.
3. To provide access for public exploration and to appreciate its collections, artifacts and archives, through tours, exhibits, school programs, fundraisers and special events, in the Museum proper and on the grounds, all supported through an accessible online presence.
4. To maintain and preserve the natural woodlands on the property as a site for the study and appreciation of examples of the natural history of the area, to ensure that this is accessible to the public.
5. To continually search for the means to further various aspects of the operation of the Museum by utilizing the expertise of Society members, volunteers, employees and the Board of Directors.
6. To involve the Community through outreach programs, to implement and develop Museum programs and exhibits.
7. To support the research needs of the Community through the preservation and accessibility of historical resources available through the Sackville Heritage Archives.
8. To expand and support our cultural understanding through direct engagement with our diverse community.
9. To adhere to the guidelines of the Canadian Museum Association, Council of Nova Scotia Archives and the Association of Nova Scotia Museums to ensure their standards are met.
